CCI and ICI signed Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Koen Culinary Institute from Japan

(11 November 2016 - Hong Kong) The Chinese Culinary Institute (CCI) and the International Culinary Institute (ICI) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Koen Culinary Institute, Japan, in mid-October, which reinforces the promotion of Chinese Culinary arts to Japan and enhances ICI students' culinary knowledge in Japanese and French cuisine and pastry through mutual visits and exchanges. The representatives from the Koen Culinary Institute have paid a visit to Hong Kong in which Chef Shunsuke Takahashi, Assistant Professor of the Institute has specially conducted a rewarding culinary demonstration of exquisite French pastry to the students.

The Koen Culinary Institute is a leading Japanese Culinary School providing professional culinary programmes covering local and international cuisines and aims at nurturing professional chefs with extensive global connections.
